GCAA GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS AWARDED

The GCAA Graduate Fellowship Fund will enable eight deaf graduate students to continue their studies at colleges and universities throughout the country. Since its beginning in 1968, the Graduate Fellowship Fund has awarded more than $37,000 in scholarship grants.

Receiving scholarship assistance from the Fund this academic year will be:

--Chuzo Okuda, '70, mathematics at Penn State University

--Betty G. Miller, '57, art education at Penn State University

--Kendall R. Doane, '67, computer science at UCLA

--Michael L. Moore, '68, chemistry at North Texas University

--Robert Harris, a 1970 graduate of Lake Forest College, clinical psychology at NYU

--John S. Schroedel, '68, sociology at NYU

--Frank Bowe, who received his BA from Western Maryland College and earned an MA in 1971 from Gallaudet, educational psychology at NYU

--Frank Hochman, who received his BS in science from the City College of New York in 1958, medical school at Rutgers University.

If you have a story for The Buff and Blue, submit it to Joe Weber, news editor, in The Buff and Blue office (Kendall Hall) on or before the following dates:

#1	Sept. 6	#5	Nov. 1
#2	Sept. 20	#6	Nov. 14
#3	Oct. 4	#7	Nov. 29
#4	Oct. 18	#8	Dec. 6

FOR ADULTS ONLY!

...Continuing Education classes, that is! The Center for Continuing Education is offering another semester packed with interesting and informative classes. Registration for most classes is still open.

If you are intrigued by the mystique and romance of the Middle East, why not give Belly Dancing a try. It's good for the waistline as well.

Back by demand, Around the World In Five Dishes. See demonstrated and taste dishes from the repertoires of French, Chinese, Jewish, Indian and German cookery.

Intermediate Bridge, Family Money and Management and Single Parent Life are among the 42 course offerings this fall.

Three excellent and stimulating courses offered by Catholic University are also available through the Center -- I'm OK, You're OK, Senators and Congressmen on Issues and Foreign Correspondents on Issues.

All classes are open to Gallaudet faculty and staff. To register, stop by the Center for Continuing Education on the second floor of College Hall.

ART IN THE CIRCLE

A mixed media exhibit of the work of Joseph Weller is on display in the circular section of the Thornberry Hearing and Speech Center through Oct. 5.

Dr. Weller, a physicist at the Naval Research Lab, who has been studying with area artists over the past several years, is the husband of Rosemary Weller on the audiology and speech faculty.

AMONG OURSELVES

Penny Shope has been named registrar of the College after a year as acting registrar....Barbara Kannapell has moved her office to room 258, HMB, and can be reached by phone on 519, 304 (voice) or 539 (TTY)....Steve Mathis, this year's recipient of the Powrie V. Doctor Chair of Deaf Studies, is on campus and living in Dorm #3. His office is located in the Library where is working on Doc's papers....Jorge Soler of the philosophy department was in Barcelona, Spain, gathering materials for a book on the first educators of the deaf. While in Barcelona, he visited the regional state school for the deaf, Centro Municipal Fonaudiologico, which is interested in the use of cued speech. He also made contact with deaf adults from different areas of Spain in order to film the different varieties of Spanish Sign Language. The films are available from the Linguistics Research Lab.

OUR THIRD YEAR

This issue marks the beginning of the third volume of ON THE GREEN. We thank you for your assistance in gathering news about campus events.

Please send news items to the Office of Alumni and Public Relations or phone 741 (voice) or 480 (TTY).
